

Foreign Affairs Manual

VOLUME 1 – Organization and Functions

Change Transmittal: ORG-329

Date: May 15, 2014

1 FAM 360 OFFICE OF MEDICAL SERVICES (MED)

Changes

1. Summary:

- Revised to keep pace with the expanding role and growing challenges inherent to medical support in our highest threat posts
- The role of the Medical Director was clarified to address technical oversight to medical contracts
- The roles and responsibilities of the Director of Operational Medicine are clarified to address the requirements for medical planning and support for our highest threat posts
- Finally, the division of responsibilities for mission critical tasks between our Office of DASHO Operations and the Office of Operational Medicine was codified to streamline work flows and communications

2. If this issuance changed less than half the words, we formatted the changed text in dark magenta italic. If this issuance changed more than half the words, we did not use dark magenta italic. The CT line in each section shows when that section last changed.
3. Officers are reminded that Department-issued materials not codified in the Foreign Affairs Manual or its supplemental Foreign Affairs Handbook series generally have no regulatory validity (see 2 FAM 1111.1).
4. The office responsible for the material in this subchapter is MED/DIR/QI. Please direct questions concerning content substance and interpretation to this office. Administrative questions on the Foreign Affairs Manual or Handbooks can be directed to A/GIS/DIR, Office of Directives Management.
